To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Mrs. Gay Brown was a tutor in the Speech/Language Services of our school. She provided speech and language tutoring for three of my elementary student with language problems. She met them two to three times every week. Aside from providing academic help, she offered lessons which included auditory comprehension, following oral directions, auditory memory, vocabulary development, and grammar.

Mrs. Brown had initiative and creativity; she provided not only academic tutoring but also personal attention and love for the kids she served. In addition, she was well-liked by the kids and their parents.

I highly recommend her for Speech/Language and academic tutoring. She has proven herself capable and adroit. I know that given the opportunity she will do excellent work.

Sincerely yours,
