

Sent: Friday, 22 June 2007 2:20 PM
To: brownje@iinet.net.au
Subject: Dear My tutor, Mrs. Brown

Hello, Mrs. Brown
I'm your apprentice, Yang.
By the way, as you know, I took the 'IELTS' exam on the second of June and 2 days ago I got the result.
It was not so bad.
Actually, my ultimate goal was more than 7 points, but unfortunately I've got 6.5 in overall.
7 points in Listening and Speaking, 6.5 in Reading, and 6 in Writing.
Anyway,, I'm satisfied with my result,, and I really really appreciate your teaching.
I was able to get 7 points in Speaking because of you.
So, I could enter the 'TESOL' course in Sydney (needed more than 6.0), but I'm still thinking of whether taking the course or not.
Thanks my teacher, I leant a lot from you.
Take care and be happy with your husband.
see you again some day~!!

From your pupil, Yang